PRESIDENT PEABODY SPEAKS HIS MIND.

In compliance with a summons from State Insurance Commissioner Prewitt, President Peabody, of the New York Mutual Life Insurance Co., came here on Tuesday and was questioned by the lawyers engaged by Mr. Prewitt as to why that company had dismissed Mr. Biscoe Hindman as General Agent for Kentucky.

Mr. Peabody virtually told the commissioner that the company claimed the right to dismiss any of its agents at any time, if it was deemed best for the company's interest, and, while he did not believe the Commissioner had any authority to make that inquiry, he would say that, while Hindman was the agent he was "knocking' on the company in such way as to prevent the proper and legitimate increase of the business which was naturally coming to it, and that was the reason he was dismissed. He said that the Commissioner might as well claim to have the oversight of any other company's employment and dismissal of employers.

Altogether it looks like the Commissioner of Insurance had "caught a bear," that he would be glad to let go of, and was shown to have overstepped the bounds of his authority.
